1. Newly submitted claims 77, 78 and 87 are directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons: These claims have been amended to recite limitations that would place them in Species D, that directed to the formation of an ion exchange polymeric fiber.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 77, 78 and 87 have been withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

2. Claim 80 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 80 is dependent on a now withdrawn claim and this requires correction.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-22, 76, 80 and 81 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japanese Patent 10-266,015 in view of Hoffman et al essentially for reasons of record noting the following.

Applicant has amended claim 76 to recite the formation of a removable substrate material over the solid core fiber and hence the 102 has been obviated. However, it is respectfully submitted that the instant claims have been validly rejected over the combination of art. Applicant is referred to column 7, lines 10-13, where the aspect of a removable substrate material is taught, this disclosure being pointed out in the action of May 17, 2005.

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

In view of the amendment, the 102 has been dropped. However, it is submitted that a valid 103 still exists against the claims over the art applied. Applicant's comments with respect to Hoffman et al not teaching a removable substrate material are noted but are not persuasive—see col. 7, lines 10-13, referenced in previous actions.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
